

TEST / NCERT Number Systems Q1 — source-linked TEST Core2/Core1A / Practice

Concept: NCERT Number Systems Q1 — source-linked TEST Core2/Core1A

 Learn

 Practice

All questions in QB →

NCERT Number Systems Q1 — source-linked TEST Core2/Core1A: Source questions

Unit 1 Ex 1.1 Q1 Verified curricular source, faithful NCERT wording

Subject: TEST

Topic: Number Systems: rational numbers and real numbers

Concept: Every rational number is real

Concept difficulty: Easy concept

Question difficulty: Connected reasoning

Family: Recognise the inclusion of rational numbers in real numbers

Question type: Single-correct multiple choice

Source: NCERT Exemplar Class IX · Unit 1, Q1 (source custody witnessed; academic review separate)

Provenance: NCERT source custody witnessed (academic validation separate)

ATTEMPT FIRST

Every rational number is

Conditions

- The claim must apply to every rational number, as the original question explicitly states.

(A) (A) a natural number

(B) (B) an integer

(C) (C) a real number

(D) (D) a whole number

Need a hint? · guided support

+

Need the concept again?

Every rational number is real

